

To the Citizens of Monroe, Alien and Simpson Counties.

MONROE COUNTY, KY., July 22, 1865.
FELLOW-CITIZENS: I am a candidate to represent you in the State Senate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Duncan. I have lived amongst you for twenty-five years, and am sure you know me well. It is wholly out of my power to come among you during the canvass, and, in person, communicate to you my views at length on the subjects that now agitate the people of our State. The ill-health of my family, if nothing else, will prevent his. But, as you know, I am myself disabled by wounds inflicted by the enemies of our country, and it would probably cost me my life to exert myself as men usually do in a canvass; so I must content myself with saying to you that I am now, as I have ever been, a UNION man in deed as well as in word; that I am for the government of the United States abolishing slavery, now offered for your action. By adopting that amendment you can legally obliterate at once and forever that institution which has been the means, if not the cause, of all the desolation and bloodshed incident to the rebellion.

By adopting it you will free the white man more than you will free the slave. For my own sake first. If elected, I will vote for that amendment, believing it do, that slavery as now exists, is not only worthless, but a nuisance even to those who pretend to desire it.

I shall expect to receive the votes of loyal men, but those who have sided with the late rebellion, but who have stayed at home, and who still wish to keep up the strife, are not expected to vote for me, for I am unalterably and forever opposed to them, their motives and their purposes. I bear upon my body the scars of wounds inflicted by their friends in lawless and murderous assaults upon me, for the sole reason that I loved the government of Washington and Jefferson and of Jackson.

Much is said about military interference in the elections.

I am for a full and free exercise of the elective franchise, and am assured by the military authorities, and believe firmly there will be no interference with legal voters anywhere in Kentucky. It is the cry of those only, who have been always ready with excuses for being against the Government. If you elect me, I shall endeavor to serve you faithfully and efficiently.

JOHN M. FRAIM.

Proclamation.

To the Officers of Elections:

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, Executive Department, Frankfort, Ky., July 19, 1865.—The purity of the elective franchise can only be preserved by a faithful enforcement of the laws governing the same. For their enforcement, the officers of every white male citizen, 21 years of age, who has resided in Kentucky two years, and whose residence has been in the district where he offers to vote for 60 next preceding the election; and each white male citizen, who, not having two years residence in the state, has resided one year in the county, and six days in the precinct where he offers to vote, next preceding the election, is entitled to vote; provided he has not expatriated himself and lost the elective franchise by coming within the provisions of the following act:

CHAPTER 500.

AN ACT to amend chapter 15 of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Citizens, Expatriation, and Aliens."

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That any citizen of this State who shall enter into the service of the so-called Confederate State, in either a civil or military capacity, or shall accept the service of the so-called Provisional Government of Kentucky, in either a civil or military capacity, or having hereafter entered such service of either the Confederate States or Provisional Government, shall continue in such service afterwards act takes effect, or shall take up or continue in such service, for the benefit of the United States or the State of Kentucky, or shall give voluntary aid and assistance to those in arms against said forces, shall be deemed to have expatriated himself, and shall no longer be a citizen of Kentucky; nor shall he be deemed a citizen, except by permission of the Legislature, by a general or special statute.

Sec. 2. That whenever a person attempts, or is called on, to exercise any of the constitutional or legal rights and privileges belonging to a citizen of Kentucky, he must be required to present a certificate of expatriation provided in the first section of this act; and upon his failure or refusal to do so, shall not be permitted to exercise such right or privilege.

Sec. 3. This act to be of force in thirty days from its passage.

All persons challenged as coming within the provisions of this law, shall be required to take the following oath, prescribed by my predecessor, and which is in conformity with the law:

OATH.

"You do solemnly swear that you have not, since the 10th day of April, 1862, been in the service of the so-called 'Confederate States,' or in the 'Provisional Government of Kentucky,' in either a civil or military capacity, and that you have not accepted the service of either the so-called 'Confederate States' or the so-called 'Provisional Government of Kentucky,' in either a civil or military capacity, or having hereafter entered such service of either the Confederate States or Provisional Government, shall continue in such service afterwards act takes effect, or shall take up or continue in such service, for the benefit of the United States or the State of Kentucky, or shall give voluntary aid and assistance to those in arms against said forces, and that you will bear true and faithful allegiance to said Government of the United States and State of Kentucky, so help you GOD."

Absence from the place of residence in the service of the country, or from any other cause, where no intention existed to change the residence, will not exclude from voting, if present at the election precinct where his residence is, on the day of election.

Absence without any purpose of changing the residence, keeps the residence of such person in his voting precinct.

Loyal men throughout the State are requested to report to the Governor any disregard of the expatriation law, either upon the part of officers or citizens; giving the name of the officer or citizen, and the place proceeded against for such violation. The officer who shall fail to discharge his duty, as prescribed by law, or the citizen who, not being entitled to vote, shall do so in violation of law, should be promptly reported, to the Probate Court, for trial and punishment. These plain words are spoken, that none may act upon the supposition that they will be permitted, with impunity, to disregard the laws made to guard and protect the purity of the elective franchise, or override the lawfully established sovereignty of the people.

The civil authorities will assist the civil officers in the enforcement of these instructions, if any attempt be made to violate them, upon application to the officer nearest in command.

THOS. E. BRAMBLETT,
Governor.

GEN. LOGAN'S SPEECH.—We printed an extra edition of this great speech and can furnish a few hundred at $1.50 per hundred ($1.75 per copy). It is a capital campaign document.

PERSONAL.—The "Local" wishes this morning to say a few words to his ten thousand friends in the city. He cannot be expected to be in several different parts of the city at the same time, and therefore can not be expected to pick up every little occurrence during the day. He therefore requests that his friends in the different sections of the city will report to him all murders, robberies, rapes, elopements, shooting affairs, sudden deaths, &c. By doing this they will save him a great amount of labor and confer a favor on the ten thousand readers of the Press. For all such favors we will reciprocate.

The Local would also take this opportunity of making a few explanations, most of which are applicable in his every day transactions. In the first place he is not one of the proprietors of the Press, but is working for a salary ($150 per week, more or less), and has to consult the wishes and interests of the proprietors. They have devoted a portion of the paper to news matter, and the rest to advertisements, for which there is still room.

The Local cannot be expected to taste a brand of wine in a liquor store and forth with give the proprietors thereof the advantage of a column "puff." Neither can he, for a handful of wormy pea nuts, itemize a confectionary—nearly time. He does not know how many feet and inches a race horse jumps on the third quarter of the last mile of a four mile heat. He publishes the result of the races as they occur, and is generally correct. The Local has no season tickets to Mammoth Cave or the Hawesville coal mines, and therefore cannot lend them to families, who wish to make cheap summer excursion. Again, he does not have thirteen hundred and ninety-five tickets to show every or theatre that gives a performance in the city, and if he did it would not be right to distribute them all over the city. They are not transferable. He goes to such places as a matter of business and not for pleasure. Amusements pay for their advertisements and should not be imposed on persons who have the advantage. The Local is not personally acquainted with every "star" actress, actor or ballet girl, and is not authorized to give introductions to them the first day after their arrival in the city. He has no free passes over railroads and steamboats to lend. In a word, he has no control over such things. He cannot advertise a person's business simply because he has had extended to him the common courtesies of life. The local is expected to publish the police proceedings as they transpire, and has not the power to leave out the name of any person simply because he or she is respectively connected. Therefore all offers of hats, caps, boots, shoes, neck-ties or greenbacks for such favors will be indignantly rejected, especially when offered in the presence of the proprietors.

Jacob Krehel was arrested by the military yesterday for shooting at his step-father, with intent to kill.

Mary Macknain, from Jeffersonville, was arrested yesterday for selling whisky to soldiers.

The Picnic at Bagdad, Thursday the 27th inst., is indefinitely postponed.

POLICE COURT—Monday, July 24.—James Kirk, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.

Wm. Standford was presented as a suspected felon; bail required in $300 for sixty days.

John Marley, drunkenness; fined $5.

J. L. Lepesch, stealing a pair of boots from Joseph Griman; $300 to answer; he was afterwards sent to the military.

J. R. Wing was admitted as an attorney in this court.

John Fahy, drunkenness; discharged.

Charles Schalk, drunkenness, &c.; fined $5.

James Hart, assaulting Mr. Fitzpatrick; held to bail in $200 to answer.

Wm. Johnson, suspected felon; continued until to-morrow.

James Higgins, drunkenness, &c.; fined $5.

James Collins, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5 and held to bail in $100 for thirty days.

Mathias Hass, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5.

Thos. Scally, disorderly conduct and charged with concealing a deadly weapon; discharged.

Christian Zoen, drunkenness, &c.; discharged.

John Yocom, interfering with an officer and preventing the ends of justice; discharged.

Ellen Sweeney, stealing a parasol, &c. from Mary Whaler; gave bond to answer.

Martha Gibbs (negress), stealing $150 from Mr. Levi; continued until Wednesday.

Jas. R. Hamlin, stealing a coat from August Reinbeker; bail in $100 to answer.

Daniel Coggins, stealing two watches from Ernest Obitz; discharged.

Wm. Joyce, stealing $25 from Cornell & Rogers; $400 bail to answer.

At 2 o'clock the court adjourned a number of cases having to be continued.

In conclusion the local would respectfully state that he is not an orphan asylum. He is not able to adopt into his family every foundling of the city. He will cheerfully attend to any legitimate business on the street, but would prefer to have patrons come to the office, where they will be civilly treated.

Officers Ewing and Ewing arrested three men yesterday on the complaint of Capt. Cook, late of the rebel army, who stated that he had been drugged and robbed by them at the Louisville Hotel. The men gave their names as G. Brown, L. Cheatham, and Baron Clare. They deny the charge. Capt. Cook was very anxious to visit the prisoners in the jail, but did not succeed in doing so.
